

Remove Top Lid, set aside.

Place Access Point on built in stand, raise the stand as high as you can. This AP gets Plug in power and an active internet line.

Set up additional repeaters as needed. First one right outside the office, in the hallway, then you can use additional repeaters to stretch down hallways to dressing rooms, stage, etc. They connect to each other wirelessly.

Use extension cord and raise stand as high as possible, for best signal strength and optimal repeating distance.

Plug phone into power only on your desk, it will connect to WiFi.

Green light means everything should be good. Orange or Red lights indicate a network issue. Please call us to troubleshoot if you experience any issues.